

For the week of
1-8/1-12

Verdon's Valedictorians

Need to Know:

- We will practice spelling test routines this week and have our first official test a week from this Friday
- Reading Fair-reading fair information came home before break. The actual reading fair will be held January 27th.

Important Dates:

- 1/12-interim reports go home
- 1/15 No School
- 1/27 Reading Fair

Word Work

Sight Words of the week: little

Letter focus: two letter digraphs

Math

We will spiral review this week to refresh our brains!

Reading/Writing

We will be attempting peer editing in writing workshop. Proper sentence structure will be the focus of our editing skills.

Religion with Mrs. Peterson

January- We will learn about the miracles of Jesus. We will learn that he was not only human, but fully divine as well. We see that his love brings witness to the love of our heavenly Father. We see Christ's compassion for all people. We will continue to pray together when we meet: asking, seeking and receiving God's good gifts.

If there are any questions or concerns please do not hesitate to email me.

(frances.verdon@immanuelhamilton.com) I do not check my email during the day however!!! Beth Flemming, in our front office, is the lady to contact during the day! She will make sure that I get any urgent messages.

