

4th Grade News

For the week of January 16, 2017

Important News: Interim reports are being sent home today. Please sign this and send it back to school with your child.

~~~~~

Religion: We are closing in on the end of another unit in our Religion books. Our next test will be Tuesday, January 23rd. A study guide will be coming home with your child this week.

~~~~~

ELA: We will be writing and reflecting upon ideas presented by Martin Luther King Jr. We will also be reviewing concepts in grammar.

~~~~~

Social Studies: We begin our new chapter by learning about the first forms of transportation and how this changed over time.

~~~~~

Memory Work/Spelling List:

Memory: I can do all things through Him who strengthens me. Philippians 4:13

Spelling: No new words this week

~~~~~

Notes from Mrs. Vogel:

Math: We will continue to practice division with remainders and will begin a remedial review of our multiplication facts as most of the class is struggling.

Science: We are learning about minerals and will begin the rock cycle and the three types of rock this week. These topics will continue into next week as well.
